

Loop interview

What do you like to do when you're hanging out with your friends and family?

Listening to music, vibing and chilling.

Did you used you play a lot of board/card games at school? What did and didn't you like about this?

Yes we did, I liked winning.

Have you ever played a hybrid game? Meaning a board/card game where you have to use your phone.

No I haven't.

Do you know the game werewolves? What do you enjoy the most about this game?

Yes, I like lying the most.

Do you think you know a lot about news going on recently?

No, not really.

Would you like to play a game from which you can learn about news?

Yes it sounds educational

What is something really important about a game for you.

It needs to be fun and user friendly, no one want to talk 30 years to explain the game

What is something that really bothers and irritates you about games?

Long rounds, it gets boring when it takes too long.

Would you rather plat competitive games or co-operative games?

It depends, cooperative games are only fun with fun people but competitive games are always fun.

How long do you want a game to last in order to keep it interesting enough for everyone?

1-3 minutes is ideal for me

Which news subjects would you like to see in a card game (think of social media, sport, politic, etc.)

Sport, economics, politics, (politics as it new rules and stuff so you can learn about the rules) and of course social media because everyone likes that.

What is your favorite board or card game?

Monopoly and 30 seconds, no wait not monopoly because it takes way too long, but i do really like 30 seconds.
